

Radicalisation, Terrorism and Mental Health

13 June 2019

Royal College of Psychiatrists, 21 Prescot Street, London, E1 8BB

Conference Organiser - Dr Shubulade Smith

Programme

09:30 – 10:00	Registration &amp; Refreshments
10:00 – 10:30	Opening address Dr Adrian James, RCPsych Registrar
10:30: 11:00	Counter-terrorism – The College’s Position Statement Dr Adrian James, RCPsych Registrar
11:00 – 11:20	Refreshments
What’s the evidence? Chair - Dr Shubulade Smith
11:20 – 12:00	Evidence around Mental Disorder and Mass Violence Dr Paul Gill, Senior Lecturer UCL
12.00 – 12:45	Extremism, Religion and Psychiatric Morbidity Professor Jeremy Coid, Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist
12:45 – 13:30	Lunch
What can be done in practice? Chair - Professor Tom Fahy
13:30 – 14:15	Case 1 - Sacred Values, Devoted Actors and Fusion - what have we learnt from engaging with radicalized individuals and groups? Lord Alderdice, Director of the Centre for the Resolution of Intractable Conflict, at Harris Manchester College, University of Oxford
14:15 – 15:00	Case 2 – Radicalisation and the role of the Child Psychiatrist Dr Azer Mohammed, Consultant Psychiatrist
15:00 – 15:30	Refreshments
15:30 – 16:15	Debate – The Psychiatrist’s Role is not to De-radicalise Chair – Professor Pamela Taylor Speakers include: Lord Alderdice, Dr Mayura Desphande, Dr Jonathan Hurlow and Professor Lisa Downing
16:15 – 16:30	Reflections on the day
16:30	Close